

CONNECTICUT TROOPS TO BE GUESTS OF BLUES

First Company Governor's Foot Guards Spends Wednesday and Thursday Here.

TAKE PART IN GRAND PARADE

Many Entertainments Are Planned for Visitors During Their Stay. Have Twice Before Visited Richmond Light Infantry Blues.

Governor Marcus H. Holcomb, of Connecticut, and his official staff, escorted by the First Company, Governor's Foot Guards, the crack Northern command, will arrive in Richmond on Wednesday morning to attend the Confederate Reunion. During their stay of two days here, Governor Holcomb and his entire party will be the official guests of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues' Battalion, the members of which will do everything possible to make their stay as pleasant as possible.

The Foot Guards have a nation-wide reputation, being one of the oldest as well as the best-drilled commands in the North, and their visit will be a feature of the reunion. They will march in the parade on Thursday, having been assigned a place next to Governor Henry C. Stuart and the Blues' Battalion, his escort, in the line of march.

VISITS TO NEW ENGLAND HAVE BEEN MEMORABLE

Written in large letters in the history of the Blues' Battalion are the two memorable occasions of the visits of the battalion to the Connecticut Foot Guards and other New England commands and of the trips made here by the latter. Major E. W. Bowles, commanding, said yesterday that it was with the greatest pleasure that he and the battalion anticipate the opportunity of reciprocating the many courtesies and pleasure shown the Blues of these occasions and of extending to their guests a hearty welcome.

An elaborate round of entertainment has been prepared for the visitors by the committee on arrangements, and every minute of their time will be occupied.

The famous command will arrive at Byrd Street Station on a special train at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. It will be met by the Blues' Battalion in full force and escorted to the Sixth Street Armory, where breakfast will be served and greetings exchanged between the members of the two commands.

VISITORS WILL TOUR CITY IN AUTOMOBILES

At 10 o'clock the entire party will start on an automobile tour, passing through the principal streets of the city, and thence to Seven Pines and the battle fields in that vicinity, returning through the business district and out to the Country Club of Virginia, where lunch will be served. The return to the Armory will be made about 3 o'clock. This trip will include a comprehensive view of the chief points of interest about the city, as well as the historic residential, business, manufacturing and amusement sections. The large number of bright machines laden with uniformed men will present a striking and inspiring sight.

The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to individual entertainment and to the renewing of personal friendships between the members of the two organizations.

Supper will be served for the Foot Guards at the Armory at 7 o'clock. At 8:30 o'clock, there will be a cabaret show, for which a great number of "Foot Guards-Blues" personal stunts have been arranged, as well as the best acts from a local playhouse. This will be a stag party, and invitations will be by card only.

TAKE PART IN GRAND PARADE OF THE REUNION

After the reunion parade, luncheon will be served at the Armory, the entertainment for the evening being a special performance to be given at one of the local theaters. There will be supper at the Armory, and while this is in progress, a reception and dinner will be tendered Governor Holcomb and the officers of the Foot Guards at the Commonwealth Club by the officers of the Blues' Battalion.

The final event will be the grand ball on Thursday night at the Blues' Armory, where the Foot Guards and their hosts will meet some of Richmond's most attractive women. This ball will be a gorgeous and spectacular sight. The entire Armory has been gone over by decorators and put in gala attire, the crowning achievement being the ballroom on the top floor.

WILL BE REUNION GUESTS OF RICHMOND BLUES

First Company, Governor's Foot Guard of Connecticut, which will act as escort to Governor Holcomb, of Connecticut, in the grand parade of the Confederate Reunion on Thursday. The presence of Connecticut troops in a Confederate reunion parade, preliminary to the laying of a corner-stone of a monument to General Stonewall Jackson, has occasioned general approbation, both here and in the North.

Grayson, physician to President Woodrow Wilson. Dr. Grayson was a student at the Medical College of Virginia during the sessions of 1930-1932. He is an active speaker, and the alumni are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to hearing his address. At 10 o'clock the same evening there will be a smoker and buffet luncheon at the Commonwealth Club.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock there will be at the college building an adjourned meeting of the alumni society and an address by the president of the society, Dr. Ben K. Hays, of Oxford, N. C.

At this meeting of the Alumni Association there will also be a technical session, with addresses of a technical nature by Dr. A. L. Tynes, of Staunton, Dr. R. C. Walden, of Richmond, Dr. J. Ross Hunter, of Hamsford, W. Va., and Dr. W. K. McCoy, of Gum Springs, Va.

At this meeting also the election of officers will take place and routine business of the society will be transacted. The indications are for a very large attendance of alumni. Cards of invitation were sent out liberally, and the responses have been numerous. It is undoubtedly the largest gathering of the alumni in the history of the institution. The older officers of the association, besides Dr. Hays, are: Dr. E. H. Terrell, of Richmond, first vice-president; Dr. Rufus L. Ralston, of Sedley, second vice-president; Dr. B. L. Hume, of Barboursville, third vice-president; Dr. W. B. Lyles, of Spartanburg, S. C., fourth vice-president; Dr. C. C. Coleman, of Richmond, secretary; Dr. F. W. Upshur, of Richmond, assistant secretary; Dr. F. H. Beadles, of Richmond, treasurer; Dr. Rosier W. Miller, of Richmond, registrar.

Duffy's Is Good For Run-Down People

As a tonic for run down people, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is reliable. This lady gained strength and weight by using Duffy's as directed.

She wrote as follows:

"About a year ago I was down with a very heavy cold and I had a bad pain under my shoulder blades. I was under the care of different doctors, but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand, and I could not keep anything on my stomach. A druggist near where I lived advised taking a tablespoonful of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey with an egg in milk before meals, and after following his advice I found that I could eat; I overcame my weakness, and gradually gained in weight. I believe that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic for run down people is a great thing, and I recommend it to my many friends in Brooklyn and New York. I cannot praise Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey too much."—Mrs. Mary Carmody, 116 N. Elliott Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

taken just before, mealtime stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to healthy action, improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment. This action upon the digestive process is of great importance, as it brings to all the tissues and organs of the body the nutrient necessary to their sustenance and indirectly to the whole system strength and vigor. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.
